

THE

BLIND DATE

Success Rate	22%
Attracts	desperate chicks, pity queens
Requirements	a single rose
Prep Time	none!
Bummers	roses are thorny—ow!

THE PLAY

1. Take a single rose into your local bar, approach a chick, and ask, "Are you Stacy?" When she shakes her head, repeat the process for every other potential target.
2. After a few rounds, sit down and sulk until one of your targets approaches to ask what's wrong. That's your cue to say you think your blind date stood you up.
3. After her "awwww" and half hug where she takes great care to not let her boobs touch you, start to complain about how tough dating is these days . . . especially for a billionaire.
4. Sleep with her.
