THE PLAY

1. See if any towns around you have banned dancing and/or rock music. If you can't find one, catch a bus to a prairie state. Or Utah.
2. Once you've found a devil-weary community, start blasting rock-and-roll hits from the likes of Kenny Loggins while working on your dance moves in an empty flour mill. This will somehow anger the locals and, more important, turn on all the repressed country babes.
3. Win a chicken race on a tractor.
4. Organize a town dance where you can have your pick of the local ladies.
